

The 2008 All-Western Competition

The 2008 All-Western Competition was comprised of 124 entries from across the four Western provinces.

Cowsmopolitan's All-Western winners were determined by votes from the Judges of the All-Western designated shows including: Dale Bienert (BC Spring), Brian Carscadden (Westerner Championship-Red Deer), Bloyce Thompson (WCLE-Saskatoon), Marty Unholzer (Eastern Manitoba Club Spring), Barclay Phoenix (Calgary Dairy Classic), Dan Doner (Alberta Dairy Congress), Ridley Wikkerink (Central Fraser Valley Harvest) Erik Klugkist (North Okanagan Spring), Gene Wautier (Chillwack Summer), Gerald Coughlin (Olds Fair) and David Dymont (WCC-did heifers only).

Morsan Farms led the exhibitor winners with 9 All-Western, Reserve All-Western or Honorable Mention Holsteins with Skycrest the next closest with numerous 4-H winners. Lampada and partners had 3 Holsteins and 3 Jerseys ranked in the top three. Skycrest Holsteins and Rainyridge Holsteins both claimed 5 winners in the top three open and 4-H classes making them the top breeders of All-Western winners.

Six animals were unanimous All-Western; Holsteins- Rainyridge Mr Burns Era, Lacoulee Justine Goldwyn, Brookvilla Jasper Aka and Benner Leduc Jolyn, Jersey-YRU Comerica Angelina, Payneside John Deere Gator. All told of the 124 animals nominated in the All-Western Competition there were 10 nominees also nominated All-Canadian for 2008 including 3 All-Canadian Winners. Top sire for the competition was Regancrest Dundee who had 9 in the top 3.

Thanks to our judges and everyone who submitted All-Western entries for 2008.
